Event Details

Event Title:	2009 Cyber Security Symposium Registration 10th Annual Cyber Security Symposium
Date:	Oct 20, 2009
Time:	7:45AM ET
Location:	McKnight Auditorium Cone University Center UNC Charlotte 9201 University City Blvd. Charlotte, NC 28223

Description: The rapid deployment of advanced communication and information technology in our society has enabled increased interdependencies among diverse business groups, government agencies, and other entities.

The spread of such technologies and the consequential reliance on it, require the commitment of all participants to know, understand, and take action to minimize the threats that compromise the facility, the integrity of data in the network, and the privacy rights of all persons.

Intended Audience

Business continuity professionals, IT managers, software developers, systems administrators, information security professionals, information security consultants, and policy makers should take advantage of this exceptional opportunity.

CPE and CEU credits will be available.
